

Our Mission

AAUW is open to any graduate who holds an associate or higher degree from a regionally accredited institution. Undergraduate students who don't already hold a degree can join as student affiliates.

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin or disability.

AAUW Eugene-Lane Branch Events and Activities

Advocacy, Education and Inspiration

Join our diverse group of talented and involved women offering fellowship, networking, leadership training and lifelong friends.

Programs — Programs to entertain and inform members about personal, community and national women's issues. Open to the public.

Opportunities — Advocacy for women's Issues with a voter education campaign to inform the public of policy issues vital to women.

Information — A monthly branch newsletter and website links at eugenelane-or.aauw.net.

Funding — Fundraising events to further educational, networking and support opportunities for women in all walks of life.

Scholarships/Foundations — In memory of honorary life member and community leader Kappy Eaton (1924-2018), our branch is proud to sponsor the Lane Community College (LCC) Kappy Eaton Scholarship Fund, helping woman graduate from LCC and continue to pursue a four-year college or university of their choice.

Interests and Project Groups — Our branch hosts a variety of interest groups, from local outings to a bridge club to a book group. Please visit our website for more information, to join an existing group or explore leading a new one.
